7 & 8 Sept | midday – 6pm

with talks at 1pm, 2pm, 3pm, 4pm & 5pm

Join Richard DeDomenici in his effort to make Brightlingsea a world leader through the introduction of a unique new global currency. Knit your own and spot local Knitcoin outlets to see if you can spend them.

Coming | Briony Clarke

Shelter near Bateman's Tower Café, East Hill

7 & 8 Sept | midday – 5pm

The closest you'll ever come to eating a cloud, these edible sculptures salute Brightlingsea as the ultimate seaside town where the candyfloss is not pink but white with wisps of tonal greys.

it is 89 days this morning since we left the Mumbles Head | Jackie Chettur

Bateman's Tower Promenade

7 & 8 Sept | midday – 6pm

A series of 3D stereoscopes depicting the long journeys and extraordinary sights experienced by sailors as they set sail beyond the horizon.

Marine: A Story in Eight Objects |

Wayne Burrows

7 Sept at The Smack Dock, Waterside

8 Sept at Brightlingsea Museum,

1 Duke Street | 1pm – 5pm both days

Wayne Burrows' film combines text and images from historical events, maritime voyages and the circulation of the blood to create a visual and audio medley.
