

UPROOT

A CREATIVE WRITING, PERFORMANCE AND GARDENING WORKSHOP
FOR PEOPLE TRYING TO PUT DOWN ROOTS

Where: Ag09 Studio, Canterbury Christ Church University Campus

When: Friday May 17 2019

Time: 10am–5pm

Lunch is provided

Award-winning artist company Curious are offering a free creative workshop, UpRoot, for the UNESCO celebrations in Canterbury. UpRoot accompanies Curious' new performance Wild Longings, which celebrates diversity, interconnectivity and survival in times of upheaval and change.

UpRoot invites participants to explore notions of home through the medium of plants, and employ rooting and uprooting as metaphors for personal stories of belonging.

The workshop is offered free but places are limited!

For more information, and to reserve a place, please email curious@curiousperformance.com or call 07526363148.

Deadline for booking: 10 May 2019
